Subject: TTB Notice#4, Flavored Malt Beverages and related proposals(2001R-136P)

Dear Sirs:

The Flat Branch Pub and Brewing support your proposed regulations for Flavored Malt Beverages as set forth in TTB Notice #4 of March 2003. These flavored products should have their own regulations as they do not in any way conform to a fermented malt beverage. It has been a disservice to the brewing industry to have these products associated with ours. Competition is fine; the proposed regulations define the playing field by distinguishing between flavored malt beverages and the ales and lagers commonly know as beer.

Very truly yours,

Larry Goodwin, Brewer
