RE: TTB Notice Number Four

To Whom It May Concern:

As a small business owner I am concerned when I evaluate this country's economic crisis. Now, the TTB wants to warrant more taxes through this proposed rules changes concerning flavored malt beverages. If these new regulations are implemented it would ruin small retail businesses, and the FMB product line.

Instead of hindering economic growth even further, with the loss of thousands of jobs, and an enormous amount of money, let's work together to find a fair resolution. Let's save jobs, make money, and help our economy flourish.

Please stand up for what you know is right. Please help the honest, hardworking people of America. Say no these new regulations.

Sincerely,

Steven Garcia
