Dear Sir/Madam:

RE: TTB Notice Number Four

Many small businesses depend on sales of flavored malt beverages. The proposed new regulations would sabotage business success by making these drinks impossible to produce or too expensive to sell. It is not fair to target a branch of our economy that is already suffering enough!

The TTB Notice No.4 would change a successful policy that has overseen all aspects of the flavored malt beverage industry for three decades. Adding burdensome new regulations when there is clearly no need for them is downright reckless.

Our government needs to be very responsible in their decision making during such a tenuous time in our economy, This would be a step backwards from economic growth. Please stop this rules change before it's too late.

Regards,

Roland Brockwell
