For extracts, essences, and distillates derived from multiple sources, the following requirements apply:

- Products must be the same regardless of the source;
- The technical data sheet must contain all relevant information required above;
- The alcohol content must be the same from all sources for alcohol-containing products; and
- An in-house technical data sheet may be provided, but it must state whether the product is purchased or made in-house.